Article 06.00 Non-Bargaining Unit Personnel

06.01 Non- bargaining unit personnel may temporarily perform the work of or with unit employees, provided such work does not result in layoff, reduction of hours or earning opportunities or benefits. Such temporary work may be performed under the following conditions:

- a. For the purpose of instructing and training employees.
- b. Under emergency conditions. The term "emergency" as used in this provision is defined to mean any unforeseen combination of circumstances, which would require immediate action.
- c. Up to the normal daily schedule hours on any shift when an employee fails to report to work, and other qualified employees are not available in the classification.
- d. Supervisor may perform Bargaining Unit work when a temporary increase in workload or employee absences may cause the work schedule to be delayed, causing operational problems.
- e. Lack of necessary skills required to complete a specific task.

Article 07.00 Seniority

07.01 Seniority, on the date of contract ratification, will be established as the employee's date of hire that is continuous service with the Company working on the U.S. Navy T-45 program in the bargaining unit. Any employee hired after ratification of this Agreement will have their seniority date established as their date of hire on the U.S. Navy T-45 Program at their respective site. Employees transferring into this contract and into the bargaining unit from another Company location, will retain their Company service date of hire for vacation and fringe benefits, but would establish their seniority date, for all other purposes, as their date of hire on the U.S. Navy T-45 Program at their respective site.

07.02 The Company will apply qualifications and seniority in its everyday operation relating to promotion, transfer, bidding, overtime, layoff and recall and other terms and conditions of employment of the bargaining unit.

07.03 Employees who work in a lower rated classification on a temporary basis will continue to be compensated at the wage rate of their higher rated classification. Employees who perform work in a higher classification will be paid the highest wage rate for time worked in the higher classification.

07.04 A new employee shall be in a probationary status until they have completed ninety (90) actual work days from the last date of hire. During this first ninety (90) day period, the Company may transfer, layoff or discharge such employee at will and such action shall not be reviewable through the grievance procedure. After these ninety (90) days, the employee will be placed on the seniority roster and his seniority date will revert to the hire date referenced above. Seniority order for employees with common hire dates will be determined by the social security number with the highest last four digits being the most senior.

07.05 Loss of seniority will result under the following:

- a. Resignation or quit;
- b. Retirement;
- c. Discharge for cause;
- d. Failure to return from leave granted with a Leave of Absence;
- e. Layoff in excess of twelve (12) months;
- f. Failure by the employee to notify the Company of the employee's intention to return to work in response to a recall notification within forty eight (48) hours after the receipt of such recall notice, and of the employee's return to work within fourteen (14) calendar days following the receipt of such notice;
- g. Transferred or promoted out of the bargaining unit in excess of ninety (90) calendar days;
- h. Absence from work for three (3) consecutive working days with no contact with the Company, unless excused by the Company;
- i. Acceptance of employment with another employer while on an approved leave of absence;
- j. Employees absent from work due to a workers' compensation claim in excess of twelve (12) months.

07.06 The Company will post a seniority list at least once every twelve (12) months (once a year). The list will show each employee's name, hire date and classification. Any protest must be filed within ten (10) days of such posting. This provision will not prohibit the Union from requesting seniority lists more frequently than once per year.

07.07 When reducing the workforce, the Company will lay off in reverse order of seniority in Job classification. The most junior is laid off first, with the Lead being laid off last. The last employee laid off will be the first recalled in Job classification.

07.08 The Company will notify the Union and the employees affected of pending layoffs at least five (5) work days prior to layoff, if possible to do so. Affected employees will be given a layoff notice and will be responsible for notifying the Company of their current address or any address change.

07.09 The Company and Union may mutually agree on seniority dates for individual employees because of unique and special circumstances.

Article 08.00 Promotions/Bidding/Transfers

08.01 A bargaining unit employee who bids and is promoted or transferred and such employee fails to satisfactorily perform the duties of the new job within a period of up to thirty (30) work days, unless extended by mutual written agreement of the parties, the employee will be returned to the classification last held prior to the award of such promotion, provided the classification has not been abolished.

08.02 When a bargaining unit job vacancy occurs within the Company at the employee's respective site, the vacancy shall be posted for three (3) work days. The notice will contain:

- a. Job title and wage rate.
- b. Qualifications required.
- c. Date and time after which bids will no longer be accepted.
- d. Work schedule.
- e. Effective date.

08.03 Bids must be in writing and sent to the Program Manager's office, which will affix the date and time to validate a timely filing. Bids received after the closing date will not be considered.

Due to the nature of the contractual work to be performed, if available, employees may be brought in from other locations to perform specific short term assignments for the respective T-45 Program, as the need arises, not to exceed forty-five (45) calendar days, so long as there are no employees in the classification on layoff who are qualified to perform the assignments. Such actions shall not cause the layoff of any employee within the classification in the bargaining unit who are qualified to perform the work. The Company will meet with the Union and inform them of the reasons such actions are necessary. If the Union disagrees, the issue may be submitted by the Union to the grievance and arbitration procedure, providing there are qualified employees in the classification on layoff.

- 08.04 The employee awarded the bid will be notified and will report for work on the new bid as of the effective date stated by the Company. The most qualified and senior employee who bid will be awarded the bid. Bids will be awarded within five (5) work days of the bid closing.

Article 09.00 Leaves of Absence

- 09.01 Limited unpaid personal leaves of absence may be granted by the Company upon request of employees who have completed their probationary period. Such leaves shall be for not less than five (5) work days and not more than thirty (30) calendar days. Requests for unpaid personal leave of absence must be made in writing and must receive approval by the Company. Accrued vacation must be used before any leave will be approved. A maximum of two (2) extensions may be approved by the Company. However, if the employee does not return to work after the personal leave of absence, the employee shall be terminated.

- a. Vacation credits are not earned while on a leave of absence under the provisions of this article.

- 09.02 Seniority shall continue to accumulate during the approved leave of absence. When an employee has been granted a leave of absence for a specified period of time, it will be the employee's responsibility to request an extension of such leave prior to expiration if additional time is required. All such extensions must have prior Company approval.

- 09.03 Leave of absence for legitimate personal health reasons supported by sufficient medical verification will be granted to an employee for a period of not to exceed ninety (90) days and will be extended when supported by sufficient medical verification supplied by the employee from a licensed physician. Leaves of absence for personal health reasons will not exceed twelve (12) months. An employee will be terminated after twelve months.

- a. The Company will abide by the provisions outlined under the Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA) and all applicable federal and state laws.

- 09.04 An employee on leave of absence for personal health reasons may return to work prior to or at expiration of such leave upon the written release of a licensed physician provided the employee is able to perform his/her assigned duties safely. Should the Company question the employee's capability to perform the assigned duties safely, the Company may have the employee examined by another physician, prior to returning the employee to work. If the physician selected by the Company and the employee's physician disagree, then the employee shall be examined by a third (3rd) mutually acceptable physician and that physician's decision shall decide the employee's capability. Any such additional examination costs shall be incurred by the Company.

- a. While on leave of absence for personal health reasons, the employee shall notify the Company as to his/her potential of returning to work on a biweekly basis, except in those cases where the employee's physician has provided an expected date of return.
- b. An employee may be returned to restricted duty at the discretion of the Company, provided the Company is able to accommodate said restrictions.

09.05 Leaves of absence without pay for Union business will be granted to Bargaining Unit employees of the Company, not to exceed two (2) weeks for each employee each year, who are elected or appointed by the Union, to attend such functions as conferences, conventions, and union educational courses, provided at least five (5) work days advance notice is given in writing to the Company, if possible to do so. However, not more than one (1) employee may be on such leave at any time.

09.06 Leaves of absence without pay in workers' compensation injury and legal occupational disease cases will be granted automatically for the full period of legal temporary disability, and seniority will accumulate for the full period of such leave.

09.07 An employee who has completed his/her probationary, who is called to and performs short term active duty of thirty (30) days or less, including active duty training as a member of the United States Armed Forces Reserves or National Guard, shall be paid the difference between the employee's military rate and the employee's straight time hourly rate of pay for a period of up to ten (10) scheduled working days per calendar year. The employee must present a copy of the employee's order to the Company as soon as they are received by the employee. Upon return from active short term duty, the employee must present pay vouchers so that the calculation of the difference in pay may be computed. The employee will be given a leave of absence for, and will accumulate seniority during such period of service. Employees required to report for military training in excess of thirty (30) consecutive days or those called to active duty shall be reinstated in accordance with the Uniformed Service Employment and Reemployment Rights Act. The parties to this Agreement shall comply with current applicable state and federal legislation regarding military service.

- 09.08 When leaves of absence are granted, the employee, upon return to active employment, will be returned to his/her classification based upon seniority and qualifications.
- 09.09 When an employee fails to return to work at the expiration of an approved leave of absence, or accepts gainful employment during a leave of absence without the approval of the Company, that employee shall be disciplined up to and including discharge at the option of the Company.
- 09.10 Any member of the Union elected or appointed to a full time Union position shall, upon written request by the Union, be granted a leave of absence for Union activities up to a two (2) year period and with the opportunity to request extensions. Employees on such leave shall retain seniority. Not more than one employee shall be on such leave at any one time. If the employee's group insurance through the Company is to be continued, the Union or the employee shall be required to pay the full monthly insurance premium.
- a. When the activities for which such leaves of absence are granted shall cease, the Union shall immediately notify the Company in writing, and if application is made therefore within fifteen (15) days thereafter, such Union member will be given re-employment in a similar position, if same still exists, or a comparable position in accordance with his/her qualifications and seniority privileges, and applicable wage rate at the time of return to the active payroll.
- 09.11 Any member of the Bargaining Unit shall, upon written request, be granted a leave of absence to pursue and serve in a local, state or federal elective political office. Such leave of absence will be limited to a maximum of two (2) years. During such periods of unpaid leave, the employee shall retain but not accrue seniority.
- 09.12 The granting or disallowance of Personal/Medical Leaves of Absence for employees within the probationary period will be at the discretion of the Company.

Article 10.00 Holidays

- a. For vacation purposes, all employees will be entitled to paid vacation which will be based upon years of service on the U.S. Navy T-45 Contract at their respective sites or with the Company, whichever is earlier, and each anniversary date thereafter, shall be the reference point for accrual of vacation. Paid vacation entitlement will be as follows:
 1. Employees with less than five (5) years of continuous service shall be entitled to maximum of eighty (80) hours of vacation and accrue 3.08 hours bi-weekly.

11.02 For the purpose of determining eligibility for accrued vacation credits, vesting shall be defined as follows:

- a. Employees who are temporarily laid off, may at their discretion retain their accrued unused vacation for a period of up to, but not to exceed thirty (30) days. At any time during the thirty (30) day period the employee may request in writing and be paid for his/her vacation pay. 11.05 Vacation must be requested no less than fourteen (14) days in advance and will, insofar as practical, be granted as requested by eligible employees. When conflicts in requested vacation periods arise, the employee having the greater seniority shall be given preference. However, an employee who has requested and had scheduled vacation approved, will not be displaced by a more senior employee within sixty (60) calendar days of the scheduled start of the approved vacation.

- a. Vacation may only be scheduled on the employee's regularly scheduled work days and only for the amount of hours regularly scheduled on that day to a maximum of eight (8) hours per day or the normal Compressed Work Week (CWS) schedule.
